You asked, we answered! A brand-new list of cocktails for you to enjoy.

The Classics

Pornstar Martini £8

Arguably the most popular cocktail in the UK. This classic combines vanilla flavored vodka, passionfruit purée & pineapple juice, served with a shot of chilled Prosecco.

Espresso Martini £8

Developed in the late 1980's in London when Dick Bradsell experimented with his new espresso machine. Made with fresh espresso, vanilla flavored vodka, Kahlua coffee liqueur and vanilla syrup.

Old Fashioned £9

This cocktail has its origins in Louisville, Kentucky. Stirred with ice for no less than two minutes to achieve perfect chilling and dilution. A simple but delicious cocktail consisting of bourbon, sugar and Angostura bitters garnished with orange zest and a cocktail cherry.

Bramble £8

Similarly, to the espresso martini, this drink was created by Dick Bradsell during his time at Fred's Club in Soho. It was inspired by his time spent blackberry picking as a child on the Isle of Wight. A perfectly balanced cocktail made with gin or vodka, lemon juice, sugar syrup and creme de cassis.

Cosmopolitan £8

This drink's history is confused. Some date it back to the 1930s whilst others say the 1970's. Either way, we are left with a delicious and refreshing drink to enjoy. This drink is the only known to include all three citrus fruits: lemon, lime and orange. Lemon vodka, triple sec, lime juice and cranberry juice all shaken with ice and fine strained into a chilled martini glass.
